Graacher Himmelreich Riesling Auslese Dr. Heidemanns-Bergweiler/Bernkastel-Kues

Terrior	The terrior of the "Himmelreich" in Graach consists mainly of weathered medium-depth slate soil, combined with a low content of clay. The vineyard is located 110 to 260 meters above sea level and the slopes are steep throughout. The wines from this vineyard are full-bodied and juicy, and in some years also robust and noble. The appellation "Himmelreich" ("Kingdom of heaven") is named after the local cemetery where the vineyard's domain begins.
Description	The Graacher Auslese is a very rich and elegant Riesling wine. It comes with aromas of candied apricot and citrus fruit, along with lively acidity. It is very juicy, with fine integration of all its elements. The finish is nice and long.
Suggestion	Use it as aperitif or just by itself.
Quality Level	Auslese
Varietal	100% Riesling

We say:

"We love our wines from Graach. They are somewhere between the Badstube and the Doctorberg wines in terms of full body and complexity."
