Graacher Himmelreich Riesling Kabinett Dr. Heidemanns-Bergweiler/Bernkastel-Kues

Terrior	The terrior of the "Himmelreich" in Graach consists mainly of weathered medium-depth slate soil, combined with a low content of clay. The vineyard is located 110 to 260 meters above sea level and the slopes are steep throughout. The wines from this vineyard are full-bodied and juicy, and in some years also robust and noble. The appellation "Himmelreich" ("Kingdom of heaven") is named after the local cemetery where the vineyard's domain begins.
Description	The Graacher Himmelreich Riesling Kabinett is a concentrated, lush and vibrant wine, showing apricot, mango and slate flavors, this white puts it all together, yet remains elegant and juicy, with a lingering finish.
Suggestion	This low alcohol Riesling Kabinett goes well with veal or shellfish.
Quality Level	Kabinett
Varietal	100% Riesling

We say:

"We love our wines from Graach. They are somewhere between the Badstube and the Doctorberg wines in terms of full body and complexity."
