Wine Ratings

November 2017 to Jan 2018

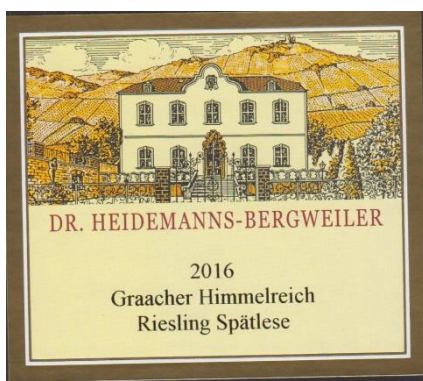

94 points

A wisp of citrus and flower aromas open this delicate Riesling eiswein, which boasts bold lime and lemon flavors on the palate. Streaks of acidity and crystalline minerality accentuate its piercing, luminous style. It's sumptuous and honeyed yet impeccably balanced. Beautiful already but concentrated enough to last decades.

93 points

Bracing whiffs of orange zest and blossom brighten this gorgeously honeyed Riesling. It's light and spry on the palate, yet unctuous and juicy, bursting with sweet white peach and guava flavors. Stark lime acidity and crystalline mineral tones leave the finish fresh and revitalizing

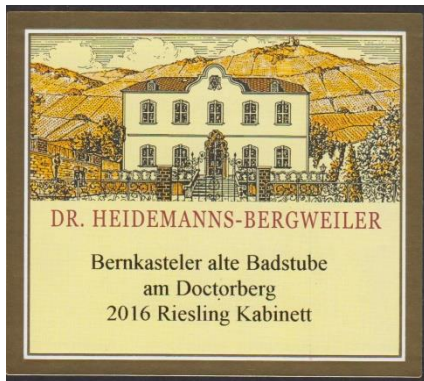

93 points

Aromas of sweet tangerine and peach are spiced with cardamom on this sun-drenched, semisweet Riesling. It's breathtakingly perfumed, yet deeply concentrated in stone fruit on the palate. Laser-like acidity and a crystalline finish lend upright structure. Gorgeous already but likely to improve through 2025.

91 points

Fresh green florals, lime zest and yellow plum are tart and invigorating in this wine. Showing a bit of a lime-and-mineral cocktail, it's spry in texture yet penetrating and juicy. The long finish is softly honeyed. Lovely already but should drink well through 2027, likely beyond.

90 points

Orange blossom and raspberry notes shine against zesty lemon-lime acidity in this light-footed kabinett. It's lip smackingly honeyed yet not at all cloying. The finish is pristine and mineral. Drink now through 2021.

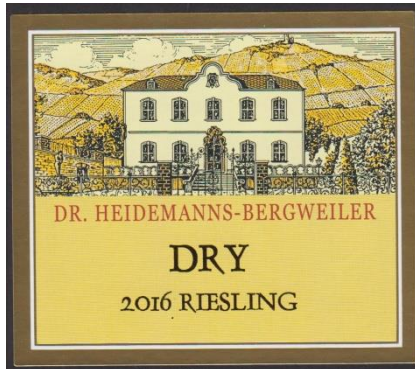

90 points

Earthy clay and crushed slate permeate throughout this dry, crisply structured Riesling. It's medium bodied and crunchy in texture but plumped by tones of nectarine and tangerine on the midpalate. A hint of pleasant bitters lingers on the finish. Drink now through 2021

Best Buy

Peachy and plush, this intensely aromatic, concentrated wine offers loads of juicy, forward stone fruit and citrus flavors. Light-bodied, spry and subtly sweet, it's a widely appealing choice at a remarkable price.

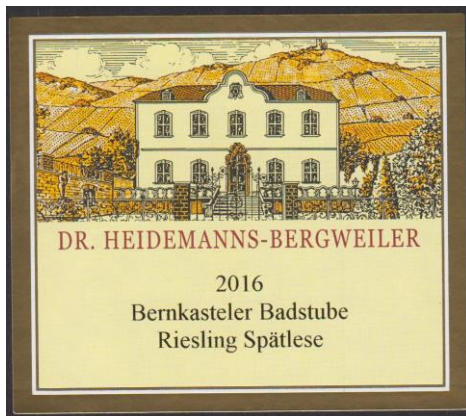

91 points

Upon first whiff, there's more earth than fruit here, but aeration reveals a surprising bounty of tropical fruit on the palate. Light footed and medium sweet in style, it's chock full of honeyed mango, pineapple and citrus flavors juxtaposed by zesty lime acidity. The finish is moderately long, tinged by struck slate and smoke.

Dusty mineral and zesty lime aromas are contrasted by plump, summer-sweet peach and tangerine on the palate. It's a spry, frisky kabinett, with lip-smacking sweetness balanced neatly by streaks of spine tingling acidity.

91 points

Plump yellow cherry, peach and apricot abound in this juicy, deeply concentrated kabinett. It's an intensely sun-kissed, almost tropical wine but light as a feather on the palate and deftly balanced by spine tingling acidity.
